

Call for Papers

Conference on Sustainable Finance, Second Edition NEOMA Business School Paris Campus – May 23, 2024

Organizers:

The Finance for Good research unit at NEOMA Business School – France
In partnership with the Impact Finance Hub at Deakin University, Australia

We are pleased to announce the second edition of the Conference on Sustainable Finance, to be held May 23, 2024 at NEOMA's Paris Campus, France. Academic sessions will cover the latest advances in all areas related to sustainable finance. We welcome submissions of papers in the following (but not limited to) topics:

- Socially responsible investing (SRI), ESG investing, and impact investing.
- Green finance, climate finance
- Responsible banking and lending
- Corporate social responsibility, corporate philanthropy
- Big data, FinTech and financial innovation for sustainability
- Regulation, disclosure and standardization, measurement issues related to sustainable finance

The conference will be held in-person for selected papers. We encourage onsite attendance for conference participants but can accommodate online attendance. The conference concludes with a Professional Panel discussion, featuring representatives from regulatory institutions, advisers, company executives, fund managers, and other financial institutions, around the challenges and the future of implementing sustainability practices. The Panel benefits from the generous support of the Global Executive MBA Program at NEOMA and corporate partners.
